

V ASSEMBLY OF THE CONSEU
SEPTEMBER 26, 27 & 28, 2003 – CAGLIARI – SARDINIA

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME

Friday, September 26, 2003

- 9.00 - 9.30 am: Reception of participants, registration and handout delivery.
- 9.30 – 10.00 am: Welcome and presentation of the assembly, by Aureli Argemí. Welcome by the authorities: the President of the Regional Council of Sardinia, the Mayor of Cagliari, etc.
- 10.00 - 10.30 am: Review of CONSEU's activities since its last assembly: Secretariat's report, by Mònica Sabata (CIEMEN).
- 10.30 - 11.15 am: The national issue in today's Europe, by Montserrat Guibernau, professor at Open University.
- 11.15 am: Break – coffee.
- 11.30 - 12.15 am: European perspectives in view of globalisation and the new world order after the war in Iraq, by Antoni Gutiérrez Díaz, former Euro-MP (to be confirmed).
- 12.15 am - 13.15 pm: Questions and debate.
- 13.15 pm: Lunch.
- 14.45 - 15.30 pm: The evolution of Europe's construction, from CECA's agreements to the project of the European Constitution: economic construction, political construction, institutional construction, the subject of the law..., by Paolo Fois, political scientist.

- 15.30 - 16.15 pm: The project of the European Union's Constitution, by Alojz Peterle, member of the European Convention (to be confirmed).
- 16.15 - 16.45 pm: Questions and explanations about the current institutions and the project, by a Euro-MP from Aosta.
- 16.45 - 17.15 pm: The key concepts of the project given the basis of democratic rights (sovereignty of peoples, separation of powers, the subject of law, institutions...), by Yann Choucq, lawyer, Breton.
- 17.15 pm: Break – Coffee.
- 17.30 – 18.00 pm: The new world order and the current state of repression of peoples' collective rights. By a representative of Kredda (to be confirmed)
- 18.00 - 18.30 pm: Critical reading of the official project of the European Constitution, given the democratic concepts and the rights of peoples, by Aureli Argemí, president of CIEMEN.
- 18.30 - 19.45 pm: Working groups:
 1. Demographic, economic and territorial differences among European peoples and their representation within European institutions. Chair: Neil MacCormick (to be confirmed).
 2. Constituencies and representation of peoples. Chair: Nelly Maes (to be confirmed)
 3. Official languages and working languages within European institutions. Chair: Diego Corraire.
 4. Immigration and integration. Chair: Ferruccio Clavara (to be confirmed)
 5. Preservation and development of cultural diversity in the future Europe in view of the context of globalisation. Chair: Lena Louarn

Saturday, September 27, 2003

- 9.30 - 11.15 am: Meeting of the working groups.
- 11.15 - 11.30 am: Break – Coffee.
- 11.30 am - 13.30 pm: Presentation of the working groups' conclusions, debate on proposals. Chair: Gianfranco Pintore.
- 13.30 pm: Lunch.

- 15.30 – 17.30 pm: New proposals of self-government from different stateless nations: Euskadi, Catalonia, Scotland, Cyprus and the Faroe Islands.

- 17.30 - 17.45 pm: Break – Coffee.

- 17.45 - 18.45 pm: Sardinia and Europe: regionalisation and democratic power(s)-regional autonomy and the path towards sovereignty, conditions for the integration into Europe. By Bustianu Cumpostu.

- 19.00 - 21.00 pm: Meeting of the commission in charge of providing a synthesis of the debates (composition to be defined).

Sunday, September 28, 2003

- 9.30 - 10.15 am: Conclusions and proposals of the CONSEU on the project of the European Constitution (CONSEU's Secretariat).

- 10.15 - 10.45 am: Proposals on counting of votes in 2004 elections to the European Parliament. Dissemination of proposals among organisations who are working on the issue of stateless nations, among state representatives and among European institutions.

- 10.45 - 11.15 am: Proposals of the Secretariat for the next assembly and review of the Summit of Berlin.

- 11.15 – 11.45 am: Adoption of resolutions.

- 11.45 – 12.30 pm: Final plenary – assembly's closure.